

Contact: Helen L. Koven
Public Relations Consultant
203-322-3130
203-273-4410
HLKoven@aol.com

July 28, 2008
For Immediate Release

Students Receive CSCPAs Scholarships from Forensic Accounting Services

(Glastonbury, CT) The Educational Trust Fund of the CSCPAs strives to both encourage students to pursue the CPA career path and financially assist them through various scholarships and grants. As a long-time active CSCPAs member, Steve Pedneault, founder and principal, Forensic Accounting Services LLC, joined forces with the Connecticut Society of Certified Public Accountants donated $2,000 to provide scholarships to high school seniors who plan to pursue a career in forensic accounting.

The recipients for the CSCPAs scholarships that were specifically earmarked with an interest in forensic accounting were Kate Dyson of Killingly High School, Danielson, CT; Audrey Manning of Westhill High School, Stamford, CT and Dabi Lee, North Haven High School, North Haven, CT.

“Stephen Pedneault embodies the goals of the CSCPAs through his continued volunteerism efforts in support of student-related Society activities. In addition to his numerous school visits and speaking engagements on forensic accounting, we were thrilled when Steve offered to collaborate with the CSCPAs new high school scholarship initiative by donating additional personal dollars that enabled the ETF to distribute four additional scholarships (for a total of 14) to deserving Connecticut high school seniors for the 2007-2008 academic year.” states Jill Brightman, Student Relations Specialist, Connecticut Society of CPAs.

“Having an opportunity to help young people who want to pursue a future in forensic accounting is truly an honor.” Pedneault said. “I am proud to support the CSCPAs Educational Trust Fund that encourages bright young people today who will ensure the future quality in a profession that I am proud to be part of.”

Pedneault is a certified public accountant, certified fraud examiner and forensic certified public accountant. He is the principal and founder of Forensic Accounting Services, LLC, which specializes in financial investigations to uncover fraud and embezzlement, provides litigation support, and assists with matrimonial and probate financial disclosures. The firm also provides a host of prevention programs and services for companies throughout Connecticut. Pedneault, also teaches an online course in forensic accounting through UConn.

#

Photo ID-(Left to right) Dabi Lee, North Haven High School, North Haven, CT received a CSCPA Forensic Accounting scholarship from Stephen Pedneault, principal of Forensic Accounting Services LLC of Glastonbury at the CSCPA Educational Trust Fund awards banquet.

Photo ID-(Left to right) Stephen Pedneault, principal of Forensic Accounting Services LLC of Glastonbury and Kate Dyson of Killingly High School, Danielson, CT who received a CSCPA Forensic Accounting scholarship at the CSCPA Educational Trust Fund awards banquet.

