Pedneault to Address "White Collar Crime, Forensic Accounting" for Hartford IMA/ASWA Joint Meeting

(Glastonbury, CT) The Institute of Management Accountants (Hartford and Eastern Connecticut Chapters) and the American Society of Women Accountants (Connecticut Chapter) will hold a special joint meeting on March 17, 2009 at 5:30 pm. The topic for the meeting, White Collar Crime is particularly timely.

Guest speaker, Stephen Pedneault, CPA, CFE, CFF, FCPA – Principal, Forensic Accounting Services, LLC, a firm in Glastonbury, Connecticut specializing in forensic accounting, employee fraud and litigation support matters will enlighten the audience with his over 20 years of experience in the field. His technical expertise and intuitive investigative awareness have garnered him the respect of the legal, accounting and law enforcement communities. As a result, Pedneault is called upon as a litigation expert on an ongoing basis and is considered a highly regarded member of legal teams.

Through his investigative work, Pedneault has examined frauds ranging from a few thousand dollars to amounts well in excess of $5 million dollars. He has authored numerous articles for local and national publications and his first book, Fraud 101, published by Wiley Press is due out in mid-2009.

The meeting will be held at Angellino's Italian Restaurant, 1115 Silas Deane Highway, Wethersfield, CT 860-721-6945. The cost of this event is as follows: $25 ($27 non members) / Full-time Student Members $15 / Technical Session Only $5. Reservations are required.
